KEY POINTS FROM NOVEMBER PARISH COUNCIL MEETING

- The Parish Council will conduct its annual review of Rebecca's and Robin's covenants in December.
- The Council plans to finalise its review of our missions program at its last meeting of the year on 8 December. Please pass any suggestions for projects to support to Rebecca or a Parish Councillor.
- It is pleasing that three of the five identified refurbishment priorities – the solar panels, the disabled ramps and the new parquet flooring in the sanctuary - have now been completed. The panels are generating about 23kw per day.
- The Council has decided to arrange an energy audit for the church, church hall and rectory to see if there are ways to reduce our electricity consumption.
- A calendar of events for 2011 is now being put together. 2011 is the 50th anniversary of the opening of the church building.

"Come and see," said Philip

Greetings!

As you would know we here at St Philip's follow the three-year lectionary cycle of readings. Today is the last Sunday of the current church year, year C. In year C we have been following the Gospel readings from Luke. Next Sunday we move into the first Sunday of year A and the first Sunday of Advent. In year A it is the Gospel of Matthew that is our focus. In year B it is the Gospel of Mark.

This all might sound as if we are tightly bound by structure and rules but I have found the reality to be the opposite. Paradoxically structure enhances and enables freedom. My son, who has just finished his final year of fine art studies at the ANU, has just spent the last 6 months exploring the idea of creating without any idea or concept in mind and discovered that it is structure, the material, that provides the freedom to express, create and learn.

In our liturgy it is like we are presented with a feast of good food and wine. The lectionary structure is like the table setting and different courses, the 'plateing up' of the possibilities before us. The structure is of course not enough by itself. There also needs to be commitment, openness and engagement from the participants. When we come to church we immerse ourselves in the music, the poetry, the words and the scripture and respond to our Creator in love. We take a journey, opening our hearts to God and the prompting of his Spirit.

On the last day of each church year we celebrate the feast of Christ the King. Today we are reminded that Jesus Christ is our Lord and no other. The Christ is the ultimate idea, reality, 'structure', that brings us ultimate freedom. In Christ we live and move and have our being for as Colossians puts it in him all things hold together and in him all the fullness of God dwells. I'd like to leave you with a few verses from the 'Faeth Fiada', St Patricks Breastplate Prayer:

*I bind unto myself today
The power of God to hold and lead,
His eye to watch, His might to stay,
His ear to hearken to my need.
The wisdom of my God to teach,
His hand to guide, his shield to ward,
The word of God to give me speech,
His heavenly host to be my guard.*

*Christ be with me, Christ within me,
Christ behind me, Christ before me,
Christ beside me, Christ to win me,
Christ to comfort and restore me,
Christ beneath me, Christ above me,
Christ in quiet, Christ in danger,
Christ in hearts of all that love me,
Christ in mouth of friend and stranger.*

Peace and blessings, Rebecca
