Greetings Everyone

I really do enjoy Christmas as a time of celebration, reflection, and thanksgiving! The worldliness of our Australian observance can be a little distracting but at least it is still called "Christmas"! Even for those who have no belief it is a reminder that there are those who want to celebrate the mystery of God made flesh or the blending of divinity and humanity in the life of Christ — and indeed in all of us! It seems to me that Christmas reminds us that as God shares our humanity we too share God's divinity — that we are all potentially like Jesus — so in touch with God that we rattle the cages of all that is rotten in our human condition — racism, prejudice, greed, injustice etc. etc. The joy and celebration we attempt to create among ourselves is a reminder that it is this joy and celebration (not just the frivolity) that is so needed in so much of the world! At this time the Christmas Bowl Appeal asks us to "Fill the future with hope" and I encourage your generosity to that appeal or any of the recognized aid agency appeals.

I feel rather strange celebrating Christmas on a Sunday but it is a habit I could get used to! It makes for a much more orderly Christmas celebration especially for clergy and there isn't the confusion of holiday arrangements. We could do something like All Saints Day where the observance is often moved to the closest Sunday. The same is done with other observances also! It would solve all the haggling over the various holiday and leave loadings etc... I might have stumbled onto something that the Church, Government, Business and Union leaders could at last agree on! And it would make my life easier as well! We could start a political party and call it "A Sunday for Christmas Party"! The plan would be approved by psychologists and counsellors because it would relieve stress at a very stressful time of year. I could be nominated as "Australian of the Year" for services to the "health and well-being of all Australians" ...In my dreams!

Oh well it is something to think about in my spare time! Of course there would be those who would complain because we weren't celebrating Jesus' Birthday on its actual day.... "you know — Jesus was born on the 25th December in the year 00 wasn't he?". Then someone would ask "How did they know he was going to be born and set the calendar to 00?" and the conversation would continue along such learned lines. Christmas Day as an observance on 25th December was a practical way of associating the Christian festival with the Roman festival of "Natalis Solis Invicti" (The birth of the unconquerable sun) in about 336AD.

We celebrate the birth of the Christ child! As we do so may we be moved to respond to his call to follow as his disciple and to make a difference wherever we might be! I wish you all the Joy and Peace of the Christ at his coming!

G'day to one and all! We trust this finds you in good health and spirits and we hope you've had a fruitful year.

Well, what a year: we've moved again! So, if we didn't wish you the very best last year, our sincere apologies. Our move was very early in the year and we were very busy at that time.

We've settled into Gawler in South Australia. It's about 50 kilometres from Adelaide. Being on the edge of the Barossa Valley — a premier wine growing area — we have been exploring the many culinary delights of the area. We've also had a houseboat holiday on the Murray River. That's a great way to relax and unwind.

The year has flown by, but as it disappears over the horizon we can catch our breath and say, "Merry Christmas and a very happy New Year to One and All!"

Our new postal address is: PO Box 1239, Gawler, South Australia, 5118.

Over the next few weeks!

Sunday 1st January (for those who are awake) services will be as usual.
