- Exodus 33.12-23
- Psalm 99 — page 325
- 1Thessalonians 1:1-10
- Matthew 22:15-33

Greetings Everyone,

We continue to be made aware of the destructive forces of nature following the terrible earthquake which has caused so much death and destruction in Kashmir, Pakistan, Afghanistan and India. The earthquake took so much news space that we almost did not hear about the tragic mudslides in Central America at the same time. Fortunately the Central American emergency did not cause so much loss of life but nevertheless terrible for all who were caught up in it. I encourage your generosity in giving to the appeals for aid in all of these disastrous events. When the Tsunami hit earlier this year there was a great outpouring of generosity but we never believe for a minute that this year would see other disasters like the hurricane Katrina in the USA followed by these two further disasters.

There are always the good news stories amidst the devastation and the news that Indian and Pakistani soldiers worked together to assist with rescue and aid in Kashmir only highlights the stupidity of border disputes and war. When the chips are down people are people sharing a common humanity. I recall a story about two boys on a fishing trip when rain postponed the fishing and the boys began to fight and argue (girls would never do that!) until when the rain stopped and they fished happily together. Working on a common purpose is a wonderfully unifying thing to do!

For those who wish to give to the relief effort in Kashmir and surrounds Christian World Service (which administers the Christmas Bowl Appeal) has established an Emergency Appeal. For further information christianworldservice@ncca.org.au or phone 02 9299 2215 or 1800 025 101. Of course the other aid agencies such as World Vision and Care Australia will have appeals I recommend as well.

The Old Testament reading today is from Exodus as we trace the ups and downs of Moses and the people of Israel on their journey to the "Promised Land". It is a reminder of our own journey of faith. In the story today Moses asks God's help and guidance as he leads the people. "Show me your ways", says Moses. The Lord replies "My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest". The one thing God will not reveal is his glory! God will give grace and mercy but only the barest glimpse of God's glory will be seen because it is beyond human comprehension. We as Christians find the glimpses of God's glory in the authentic life of Jesus as he deals with cynical manipulation and trickery in today's gospel. The reading from Paul's first letter to the Thessalonians reveals a glimpse of God's glory in the life of the Christian congregation in that place. Against considerable persecution and difficulty they were inspired by the Holy Spirit to be an example of Christian life.

Taxes are always a vexed issue! The tax question confronting Jesus related to taxes imposed by the Roman authorities. The disciples of the Pharisees would have been opposed to the Roman taxes because to pay indicated allegiance to Caesar. The Herodians were the supporters of Herod the king whose position was only guaranteed by the Romans and so they had a vested interest in supporting the Roman tax. It is interesting how Jesus steers between two political extremes to the heart of the matter. Yes! We do have a responsibility to our earthly rulers AS WELL AS our responsibility to God.
