Greetings to all!

In my absence I know you will welcome the Rev'd Connie Gerrity to preside at the Eucharist and preach today!

Connie comes with years of experience in parish ministry. Ordained Deacon in 1994 and Priest in 1995 in this Diocese Connie served at St John's Canberra before being appointed Rector of Murrumburrah in 1998. In 2003 the parish of Murrumburrah grew with the inclusion of Booroowa. Connie and husband George have moved back to Canberra following Connie's retirement from parish ministry at the end of 2007.

For any ministry need s while I am away please contact the Wardens James Kim ph.61616352, Roger Sharp ph.63363444 or Doreen Sengati-Odom ph.61614739.

"St Philip's Organ Fund"

Recently the St Philip's Parish Council established the 'St Philip's Organ Fund' so that funds could be accumulated for the maintenance required on our lovely little church organ. The projected cost is $8000. It is not a lot but neither is it easy to raise such funds in a small parish!

A portion of the proceeds from the CAMRA / St Philip's production of "Ordo Virtutum" by Hildegard of Bingen will "kick off" the Organ Fund. Profits from Food @ St Philip's refreshments will go the Organ fund also.

You may like to give a separate donation OR you may like to be the manager and promoter of the fund! Talk to Rob or the Wardens!

WHAT'S ON

Rob Lamerton is on leave till Friday 27 June.

Wednesday 10am Service will be Morning Prayer led by Baden Williams.

This Friday 27 & Sunday 29 June, 8pm St Philip's & CAMRA

ANU Public Lecture Series

"Religion and Freedom: This World and the Holy" is the topic of the lecture by Bruno Forte, Archbishop of Chieti-Vasto (Italy) University House on Thursday 10 July from 12.30 to 1.30pm

Dr Philip Cooke, a committed member of the Anglican chaplaincy at the London School of Economics will be coming to ANU between 15th July and 1st September. He is looking for (cheap!) accommodation.

Can anyone help?
