Prayer from the Ecumenical Cycle

Come, true light.
Come, life eternal.
Come, hidden mystery.
Come, treasure without name.
Come, reality beyond all words.

Come, all-powerful, for unceasingly you create,
refashion and change all things by your will alone.

Come, my breath and my life.
Come, the consolation of my humble soul.
Come, my joy, my glory, my endless delight.

The Anam Cara Community

A Community of Prayer and Support for the Inner Journey into God
This community was started in the Gippsland Diocese in 2007.
Anam Cara is the Celtic term for Soul Friend. It refers to what happens when one person walks alongside another on their spiritual journey. Bishops John (Gippsland) and Stuart are very supportive of a branch of the community starting in our Diocese. We plan to meet the third Sunday of each month from 2pm - 4.30pm. Please contact me if you would like to 'come and see' what it is about, or just turn up, next Sunday 19th at 31/28 Hartley St, Turner ph 6161 9093
Jeannette McHugh

KEY POINTS FROM SEPTEMBER PARISH COUNCIL MEETING

- The Diocesan Synod will take place in Queanbeyan from 10-12 September. Our Reps at Synod: Rebecca, Brian and Helen.
- A new parish brochure had been put together and will be published this month.
- The solar panels have now been installed on the Church Hall roof and disabled ramps constructed at the front and back entrances to the church.
- Unfortunately our application for a grant from ACT Heritage for the replacement of the parquet floor in the sanctuary was unsuccessful. However Pandora's has generously agreed to fund a new parquet floor as well as the disabled ramps.
- The current sanctuary floor will be replaced with new parquet in the same Tasmanian oak. Work is not expected to start until October.
- This means that by the end of 2010 we will have taken action on three of the five items identified as priorities by the Parish at the beginning of the year.
- Funds from the Twilight Fair will be allocated to renovate the courtyard and car park to better serve the needs of the community. Given the busy November/December period, action on the courtyard and car park will not be possible until 2011.
