St Marks - 40th anniversary of theological education and ministerial formation first being offered in Barton.

Saturday 27 August

The "Friends and Alumni Reunion" will be held as part of a publicly promoted open day. In addition to CSU enrolments advisers being on hand all day to assist new students from 9am to 4pm, we will welcome all former students – those who studied as part of the Canberra College of Ministry, the Sydney College of Divinity, Charles Sturt University and the St Mark's RTO and Diploma of Anglican Orders candidates – to a special lunch at the Ottoman Café (across the street from St Mark's) starting at 12:30pm. All former and current students will enjoy a complimentary lunch. Their companions can share in the feast for just $30 per head. Following the lunch, Friends, Alumni and Students are encouraged to stay at St Mark's and visit the many stalls and displays that will be mounted throughout the building, in addition to a personal viewing of a first edition (1611) King James Version of the Bible (presently on display in Parliament House). There will be a bumper book stall of theological texts and new titles from Barton Books will be marked down. The reunion will mark the expansion of the current Friends of St Mark's community to include Alumni. Please contact St Mark's reception on (02) 6272 6252 or stmarksadmin@csu.edu.au to reserve your place. You might also care to share news of this event with St Mark's alumni known to you.

Sunday 28 August

We will be launching a new book by Emeritus Professor Brian Fletcher called Sing a New Song: Australian Hymnody and the Renewal of the Church since the 1960s. This important work reveals the inner story of the most successful publishing venture in Australian history – the production of the Australian Hymn Book and its successor, Together in Song. This book is also a tribute to the late Bishop Owen Dowling whose family will be on hand to launch the book. Proceedings will start at 4:30pm. It will include a guest choir singing selected items from both hymn books. Sing a New Song will be available at a special launch price. This will be a great event and a large ecumenical gathering is expected. Please join us for a wonderful celebration of music and song.

For more information, contact St Mark's reception. I look forward to welcoming you to

10am Music:

Introit: There is a line of women (John Bell, Iona Community)

1. There is a line of women, extending back to Eve,
Whose role in shaping history God only could conceive.
And though, through endless ages, their witness was repressed,
God valued and encouraged them through whom the world was blessed.
2. There is a line of women, who took on powerful men,
Defying laws and scruples to let life live again.
And though, despite their triumph, their stories stayed untold
God kept their number growing, creative, strong and bold.
3. There is a line of women, who stood by Jesus' side,
Who housed him while he ministered and held him when he died.
And though they claimed he'd risen their news was deemed suspect
Till Jesus stood among them, his womanly elect.

The Song of Mary (Magnificat)

My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord:
and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour,
Who has looked with favour on his lowly of his servant: from this day all generations will call me blessed;
The Almighty has done great things for me:
and holy is his name.
God has mercy on those who fear him:
from generation to generation.
The Lord has shown strength with his arm:
he has scattered the proud in their conceit,
Casting down the powerful from their thrones:
and lifting up the lowly.
He has filled the hungry with good things:
and sent the rich away empty.
He has come to the aid of his servant Israel:
to remember the promise of his mercy,
The promise made to our forbears:
to Abraham and to his children forever.

From our Rector

Dear Friends,

Today we celebrate Mary the mother of our Lord whose feast day falls on August the 15th. The story of Mary is about a person who looked on the surface as if she didn't matter at all. She was an unmarried, young, Jewish girl for a start, and a person with no social rights. She is a person with no power, no education and very importantly, no husband. Mary lived at a time when her country was occupied by the powerful Roman Empire. In her world there was political and social unrest, and the future was very uncertain. And this is the person God chooses to bring forth the Christ, to bear the baby Jesus. This insignificant person is singled out by God to do one of the most important tasks in history. I think it is her insignificance, not her specialness that makes her so important for us. In a very real way we too are called upon to bring forth Christ in the world, to be Christ bearers, despite our seeming insignificance on the world stage, or any stage for that matter. As Christians we are called bring the love of Christ to those around us. That is the beauty and challenge of our baptismal promises - "Shine as a light in the world". No matter how dark it is, no matter what fears lurk, no matter if it seems hopeless then we keep shining; we keep being everything God has made us to be. But we can also look to Mary to learn that how we respond to God, our attitude, matters as well. How we play our part makes a difference. On days when we celebrate Mary we often say or sing the Magnificat, Mary's wonderful song of praise to God. It is a song that resonates with praise, trust, and gratitude for God's goodness. Perhaps it was just the euphoria of a young expectant mother but I prefer to see it as the story of a person of no account, who could see the greatness and love of God, who despite what was ahead of them, what dangers and fears they faced, could declare passionately the glory of God. Who could express heartfelt gratitude for the gift and promise of life and then live it to the full – all its joy and pain – and love deeply throughout it all. In the midst of all our challenges this is my hope and prayer for us all.

Peace and blessings, Rebecca.

9/11 – TEN YEARS ON.....parishioners are invited to a

Canberra Peace & Harmony Gathering

Sunday 11 September 2011, 3pm start. Environment, Meditation & Healing Garden, 5 Menindee Drive, BARTON, near Clare Holland House (Canberra Hospice).

The 10-year anniversary of the 9/11 events is an opportunity for reflection on this and other human-induced tragedies. Several faith communities, under the umbrella of Canberra Interfaith Forum will host this shared reflection. Bishop Pat Power will be one of the Christian leaders taking part. Find the time to join fellow Christians and those of other faiths to be still and quiet – together – in the common ground of meditation (embedded in all the great spiritual traditions) where differences of belief or culture can be accepted and respected via the experience of interiority, silence, stillness and simplicity. Further information: Rod & Susan
