At the name of Jesus, every knee shall bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2:10-11

Dear Friends,

The French mathematician Auguste Comte was talking about religion one day with the Scottish essayist Thomas Carlyle. Comte suggested they start a new religion to replace Christianity, based on positive thinking and mathematical principles. Carlyle thought about it a moment and replied, Very good, Mr. Comte, very good. All you will need to do will be to speak as never a man spoke, and live as never a man lived, and be crucified, and rise again the third day, and get the world to believe that you are still alive. Then your religion will have a chance to get on". This little story about Comte and Carlyle hones in on the wonder and mystery of the Christian faith. Despite the church and its manifold mistakes, despite the schisms and disagreements and despite the attempts of fallible human beings to live up to their convictions the very heart of faith is Jesus Christ, his life, death and resurrection. It is this journey that we enter into over Holy Week. It is my deep prayer and hope that as we take this journey through worship and prayer each one of us will deepen our connection to Christ Jesus, will grow in understanding and trust in God's love more and more. 'Oh what a gift, what a wonderful gift, who can tell the wonder of the Lord'.

Peace & Blessings
Rebecca

BISHOP'S FLOOD APPEAL

Bishop Stuart Robinson reports he has been "very encouraged by the quick and generous response" to the Anglicare Disaster appeal.

"I thank all those who have responded," he said. "Some early donations have been received without contact details, which means we can't send you a tax receipt. If you have made a donation and would like a tax receipt please call 6245 7100."

To make a donation please ask your parish office for a flood appeal form.

Psalm 31:9-18

- 9 Have mercy upon me, O Lord, for I am in trouble:
my eye wastes away for grief, my throat also and my inward parts.
- 10 For my life wears out in sorrow, and my years with sighing:
my strength fails me in my affliction, and my bones are consumed.
- 11 I am become the scorn of all my enemies:
and my neighbours wag their heads in derision.
- 12 I am a thing of horror to my friends:
and those that see me in the street shrink from me.
- 13 I am forgotten like one dead and out of mind:
I have become like a broken vessel.
- 14 For I hear the whispering of many:
and fear is on every side;
- 15 While they plot together against me:
and scheme to take away my life.
- 16 But in you, Lord, have I put my trust:
I have said 'You are my God.'
- 17 All my days are in your hand:
O deliver me from the power of my enemies and from my persecutors.
- 18 Make your face to shine upon your servant:
and save me for your mercy's sake.

Assistant St Philip's Webkeeper

St Philip's is still looking for a volunteer to do weekly updates of its website (especially when the regular webkeeper is away on a well-earned break!) and prepare items for the website. A knowledge of XHTML would be handy, but we can teach you the basics. Please have a chat with Brian McKinlay (6161 6352) brian@nottoomuch.com

CAMRA

At its AGM last Wednesday, Pat Forbes and Denise Manley were elected as Co-Presidents of CAMRA, Inc.

Brian and Leighton have retired from the CAMRA Committee.

Good luck Pat and Denise!

During Communion at the 10am service, Fiona Fraser will be singing these hymns from Iona:

1. Sing my soul, when hope is sleeping, sing when faith gives way to fears:
sing to melt the ice of sadness, making way for joy through tears.
2. Sing my soul, when sickness lingers, sing to dull the sharpest pain;
sing to set the Spirit leaping: healing needs a glad refrain.
3. Sing my soul, of Him who shaped me, let me wander far away, ran with open arms to greet me, brought me home again to stay.
4. Sing my soul, when light seems darkest, sing when night refuses rest, sing though death should mock the future: what's to come by God is blessed.

In this darkness
I do not ask to walk by light;
but to feel the touch of your hand
and understand that sight is not seeing.

In this silence
I do not ask to hear your voice;
but to sense your Spirit breathe
and so bequeath my care to your keeping

In unknowing
I do not ask for fearless space
but for grace to comprehend that neither you nor I are diminished.

In this death
I do not ask to forfeit pain,
but to gain the strength to love
through loss, and cross the bridge of waiting.
