6pm Taizé Service - Holy Covenant, Cook

Dear Friends,
 Holy Week and our Easter celebrations is a time to contemplate and wonder about the mystery of death and resurrection, a paradox beyond words. The simple poem below can perhaps help us a little:

In the bulb there is a flower; in the seed, an apple tree;
 In cocoons, a hidden promise: butterflies will soon be free!
 In the cold and snow of winter there's a spring that waits to be,
 Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.

There's a song in every silence, seeking word and melody;
 There's a dawn in every darkness, bringing hope to you and me.
 From the past will come the future; what it holds, a mystery,
 Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.

In our end is our beginning; in our time, infinity;
 In our doubt there is believing; in our life, eternity,
 In our death, a resurrection; at the last, a victory,
 Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.

Hymn of Promise, Natalie Sleeth

May your Easter weekend provide you with opportunities to come ever closer to the Lord of mystery and life.

Peace and blessings

Rebecca
