Warm seas and idyllic beaches.

Calypso, reggae, plena, merengue, salsa, and all the new rhythms being created in these islands.

Pepperpot stew, cou-cou, bananas, sweet potatoes, conch.

Patois, Creole, Srana, Bajan and other languages which fill these islands with meaning.

Pray for: Political stability and ethical, honest leadership from those in power.

Improved economic status for all peoples.

An end to exploitation and oppression based on race, religion or rank.

Church leadership, ecumenism, and tolerance.

Improved health for all.

Those affected by hurricanes and floods.

Prayer from Ecumenical Prayer Cycle

Gracious and compassionate God,
faithful to all your promises,
supplier of our needs,
may we never underestimate
the value of all that you afford us;
nor the usefulness of the endowments you give
for the realization of your purposes.
May we never so take for granted the gifts your bounteous grace provides as to become victims of the callousness that produces an abundance of waste.
And save us, we ask you, from becoming purveyors of the careless and irresponsible disposal of the waste we produce.

Spring Retreat, 6-8 September

The Anglican parish of All Saints' Ainslie is sponsoring a Weekend Retreat of quiet prayer and reflection from Friday evening 6 September to early afternoon on Sunday 8 September at the lovely Retreat House of St Clement's, Galong (an easy 90 minutes by car from Civic).

Trained and experienced retreat leaders will offer personal guidance and optional reflective group sessions including contemplative prayer with Scripture, centring prayer with the Labyrinth and creative imagining. There is a beautiful bird sanctuary in the grounds and walking tracks that meander to the slopes beyond. For more information and registration details please contact Alice-Anne Macnaught (macnaught@netspeed.com.au; 0414 790 201) as soon as possible.

Numbers are limited and applications will close on Friday 16th August.

AVAILABLE TODAY: St Philip's Grapevine, winter edition & St Philip's Parish Directory – get your copies today, available in the Foyer.

Tenth Sunday after Pentecost

Sunday 28 July 2013

10am Music: 104, (tune 592), 745, 539 & 387

Sentence of the day: Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you.

Prayer of the day: Provident Father, with the prayer your Son taught us always on our lips, we ask, we seek, we knock at your door: help us so to seek that we may truly find, so to ask that we may joyfully receive, and so to knock that the door of mercy may be opened for us; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Psalm: 138

- 1 I will give you thanks, O Lord, with my whole heart: even before the gods will I sing your praises.
- 2 I will bow down toward your holy temple and give thanks to your name: because of your faithfulness and your loving-kindness, for you have made your name and your word supreme over all things.
- 3 At a time when I called to you, you gave me answer: and put new strength within my soul.
- 4 All the kings of the earth shall praise you, O Lord: for they have heard the words of your mouth;
- 5 And they shall sing of the ways of the Lord: that the glory of the Lord is great.
- 6 For though the Lord is exalted, he looks upon the lowly: and he comprehends the proud from afar.
- 7 Though I walk in the midst of danger, yet will you preserve my life: you will stretch out your hand against the fury of my enemies, and your right hand shall save me.
- 8 The Lord will complete his purpose for me: your loving-kindness, O Lord, endures for ever; do not forsake the work of your own hands.
