

35 I will sing to the Lord as long as I live:
I will praise my God while I have any being.
36 May my meditation be pleasing to him:
for my joy shall be in the Lord.

FROM THE RECTOR

Dear Friends,

Joan Chittister writes that the "classic confrontation is 'us against them'". The classic love story is 'us for one another'. At clergy conference this last week I felt that there was a gene feeling of warmth and support for each other despite our many, many differences. It is something I like to think happens at St Philip's as we go about the day to day business of caring for each other and doing those things that that help us all to thrive and grow as individuals and as a community.

On this celebration of Pentecost we are reminded that it is in fact the Spirit of Christ that enables us to do this love and care day after day, week after week, year after year. May the Spirit unite and empower us!

Today is also the first time our new music group has sung and played in church. How blessed we are! Thanks to the entire group for making our worship joy filled and wonderful.

Have a blessed week.
Peace & Love, Rebecca

KEY POINTS FROM MAY PARISH COUNCIL MEETING & BUILDING (Lamerton Centre) UPDATE

The 2013 Covenant between the Parish and Rebecca has now been signed by Bishop Stuart and a copy is on the notice board. The key priorities for the year are in line with discussion at the AGM in February and the theme of nurture. They are:

- Nurture and consolidate the strengths of the Parish
- Improve our connecting, nurturing and teaching work
- Continue to build partnership and community between the English speaking and Dinka congregations, particularly through the cross-cultural family ministry
- Work with the Diocese to develop a support program for the Dinka community and their ministry
- Implement a building proposal for improved accommodation for Parish ministry activities and outreach and review the overall use of Parish facilities
- Continue to explore ways to develop a better link between current outreach activities and St. Philip's mission

The Lamerton Centre project is now in full swing. Site preparation works have begun. We are anticipating the building will arrive next week!

The fencing is important in managing risks around the construction site. Please take care at all times in the area and report any safety issues to any member of Parish Council.

Day of Pentecost

Sunday 19 May '13

10am Music

Introit: "Like the murmur of the dove's song" Alan Smith (b.1962)

Hymns: 417, 422, 396, 398

During Communion: "Come Holy Spirit" Words & Music The Iona Community.

Sentence of the day: God's love has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit who has been given to us.

Prayer of the day: O God, who in smoke and fire upon Mount Sinai gave the law to Moses, and who revealed the new covenant in the fire of the Spirit: grant, we pray, that kindled by that same Spirit which you poured forth upon your apostles, we may fulfil with joy your commandment of love. We ask this through Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

Psalm 104

- 26 Lord, how various are your works:
in wisdom you have made them all, and the earth is full of your creatures.
- 27 There is the wide, immeasurable sea:
there move living things without number, great and small;
- 28 There go the ships, to and fro:
and there is that Leviathan whom you formed to sport in the deep.
- 29 These all look to you:
to give them their food in due season.
- 30 When you give it to them, they gather it:
when you open your hand they are satisfied with good things.
- 31 When you hide your face, they are troubled:
when you take away their breath, they die and return to their dust.
- 32 When you send forth your spirit they are created:
and you renew the face of the earth.
- 33 May the glory of the Lord endure for ever:
may the Lord rejoice in his works.
- 34 If he look upon the earth, it shall tremble:
if he but touch the mountains, they shall smoke.
