

Psalm: 112 cont'd

9 They give freely to the poor:
 their righteousness stands for ever, their head
 is uplifted in glory.
 10 The wicked shall see it and be angry:
 they shall gnash their teeth and consume
 away; and the hope of the wicked shall fail.

Dear God,
 We celebrate spring's returning and the rejuvenation of the natural world.
 Let us be moved by this vast and gentle insistence that goodness shall return, that warmth and life shall succeed, and help us to understand our place within this miracle.
 Let us see that as a bird builds its nest, bravely, with bits and pieces, so we must build human faith. It is a simple duty; it is our highest art; it is our natural and vital role within the miracle of spring: the creation of faith. Amen. © Michael Leunig

Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost Sunday 1 September '13

10am Music - Hymns: 693, 609, 623 & 665

Sentence of the day: All who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.

Prayer of the day: O God, you invite the humble and the sinful to take their place in the festive assembly of the new covenant: teach your Church always to honour the presence of the Lord in the poor and the outcast, so that we may learn to recognise each other as brothers and sisters gathered together around your table. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

Psalm: 112

- O praise the Lord. Blessed are they that fear the Lord: and greatly delight in his commandments.
- Their children shall be mighty in the land: an upright race who will be blessed.
- Riches and plenty shall be in their house: and their righteousness shall stand for ever.
- Light arises in darkness for the upright: gracious and merciful are the righteous.
- It goes well with those who act generously and lend: who guide their affairs with justice.
- Surely they shall never be moved: the righteous shall be held in everlasting remembrance.
- They will not fear bad tidings: their hearts are steadfast, trusting in the Lord.
- Their hearts are confident and will not fear: they will see the downfall of their enemies.
