SECOND SUNDAY IN ADVENT

10am Music

Hymns: 276; 270; 647; 447

Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. For the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together. Luke 3.4; Isaiah 40.5a

Merciful God,
you sent your messengers the prophets
to preach repentance and prepare the way for our salvation:
give us grace to heed their warnings and forsake our sins,
that we may greet with joy
the coming of Jesus Christ our Redeemer, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Notices & Prayer points for the Pewsheets, please submit by Thursday 12pm to pewsheets@stphilipsoconnor.org.au
Thank you!

Psalm 85: 1-2, 8-13

1 O Lord, you were gracious to your land:
you restored the fortunes of Jacob.

2 You forgave the iniquity of your people:
and covered all their sin.

8 I will hear what the Lord God will speak:
for he will speak peace to his people,
to his faithful ones, whose hearts are turned to him.

9 Truly his salvation is near to those that fear him:
and his glory shall dwell in our land.

10 Mercy and truth are met together:
righteousness and peace have kissed each other;

11 Truth shall flourish out of the earth:
and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

12 The Lord will also give us all that is good:
and our land shall yield its plenty.

13 For righteousness shall go before him:
and tread the path before his feet.

FROM THE RECTOR

Dear Friends,

It is good to be home after a refreshing break in Western Australia. Thank you to Rev'd Sonia Neville, Vicky Cullen, Deacons Linda and Robin for taking services while I was away and to all who stepped up and helped. David and I visited family and spent 10 glorious days swimming at the Ningaloo Reef, a paradise for those who love the ocean and snorkeling and diving. As I was floating over the top of Coral canyons and marveling at God's extraordinary, outrageous and beautiful creativity I did remember that we are now in the season of Advent, the time of preparation for the remembrance of the birth of our Lord and the anticipation of his coming into our lives. God is always breaking into our lives, calling us, longing for us and longing for us to live lives attuned to her love, compassion and goodness. Advent gives us a chance to reflect on where we may find God with us in our lives and what we may do to improve our chances of seeing and connecting. This is not that easy at the end of a calendar year! However, in the midst of your busy end of year preparations I encourage you to find the space and time. A simple way could be to go to our website and click on the Advent calendar link for each day. There is beautiful music, scripture, poem and prayers each day - just wonderful stuff. Thank you Brian for a life-giving resource.

The Lord is coming! May we be ready.

Peace and blessings. Rebecca

Notices

Music in today's service sung by Fiona Fraser during Communion, accompanied by Colin Forbes: Beriete dir, Jesu From J.S. Bach's Cantata 147. Prepare for thy coming the way to our hearts receive as disciples the faithful believers and grant us the grace that thy mercy imparts.

PANDORA UPDATE

The Pandora bin is closed to the public until 16th January. If you see anyone lurking there with clothes bags you can tell them that there are a lot of charity bins in the Dickson car park near the Tradies club. We are still very happy to take good quality clothes from our well dressed St. Philips congregation but please give them to me or other committee members Ann, Rachel Fay or Barbara. And PLEASE DONOT leave them outside Pandoras, in Pandoras, or in the church. Pandoras will be closed from after trading on Saturday 20th December and we will open again on Friday 16th December. The staff are in need of refurbishing, restocking and revitalising!

Prayers as we light the Advent candles—2014

Advent 2—John The Baptist

The priest prays:

God our Father, You gave to Zechariah and Elizabeth in their old age a son called John. He grew up strong in spirit, prepared the people for the coming of the Lord, and baptised them in the Jordan to wash away their sins. Help us, who have been baptised into Christ, to be ready to welcome him into our hearts, and to grow strong in faith by the power of the Holy Spirit. We ask this through Jesus Christ, the light who is coming into the world. Amen.

The first candle is lit. We pray together:

Lord Jesus, light of the world,
John told the people to prepare, for you were very near.
As Christmas grows closer day by day, help us to be ready to welcome you now. Amen.
