- Matthew 11.28-29

Prayer of the Day

Almighty God,
your Son Jesus Christ has taught us that what we do for the least of his brothers and sisters we do also for him: give us the will to serve others as he was the servant of all, who gave up his life and died for us; yet lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Psalm 145

1 I will exalt you, my God the King;
I will praise your name for ever and
ever.
2 Everyday I will praise you:
and extol your name for ever and
ever.
3 Great is the Lord and most worthy
of praise;
his greatness no one can fathom.
4 One generation commends your works to another;
they tell of your mighty acts.
5 They speak of the glorious splendor of your majesty -
and I will meditate on your wonderful works.
6 They tell of the power of your awesome works -
and I will proclaim your great deeds.
7 They celebrate your abundant goodness:
and joyfully sing of your righteousness.

8 The Lord is gracious and compassionate;
slow to anger and rich in love 9 The Lord is good to all;
and his compassion is intertwined with everything he does.

From the Rector

Dear Friends,

In a conversation with some friends a question came up, "where does the church begin and end"? What a fantastic question to ponder and debate. There are so many ways one could answer but for the gathered Christian community surely the heart of the church is worship. A church like St Philip's is a bit like layers of concentric circles where there are people and groups connected at various stages and levels. At the very centre is the worshipping community who gather around the Word and the table to praise and pray, to grow and learn, to be sustained and encouraged to serve and love in the footsteps of Jesus Christ. The centre of church life is our relationship, our connection to God. As we worship we express our praise and thanksgiving. I'd like to leave you with some other words we use for praise in other contexts. As you read the words see how they expressed in our prayers, hymns and psalms.

Commend, express approval of, express admiration for, applaud, pay tribute to, speak highly of, eulogize, compliment, congratulate, celebrate, sing the praises of, praise to the skies, rave about, go into raptures about, heap praise on, wax lyrical about, say nice things about, make much of, pat on the back, take one's hat off to, throw bouquets at, lionize, admire, hail, cheer, flatter.
St Ignatius of Loyola wrote at the beginning of his famous spiritual exercises that "mankind (and the girls too!) are created to love, praise and serve God". As we gather we are collectively doing that for which we were created. May our praise give glory to God and being forth his Kingdom in and through us.

Have a blessed week, Rebecca

10 All your works praise you, Lord;
your faithful people extol you.
11 They tell of the glory of your
kingdom:
and speak of your might,
12 so that all people may know of
your mighty acts:
and the glorious splendor of your
kingdom.
13 Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and your dominion endures
through all generations:
The Lord is trustworthy in all he promises and faithful in all he does.
14 The Lord upholds all who fall:
and lifts up all who are bowed down.
15 The eyes of all look to you;
and you give them their food at the proper time.
16 You open your hand:
and satisfy the desires of every living thing.
