Sunday 14 June 2014
TRINITY SUNDAY

10am Music; Hymns: 179, 711, 478 & 531

Proclaim the Name: 'The Lord, the Lord, a God who is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness.'

~ Exodus 34: 6

Prayer of the Day

*Almighty and everlasting God,
you have given to us your servants
grace by the confession of a true faith to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of the divine majesty to worship in Unity:
keep us steadfast in this faith, and evermore defend us from all adversities,
for you live and reign, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.*

Psalm: The Song of the Three

Blessed are you, the God of our forebears:
worthy to be praised and exalted for ever.

Blessed is your holy and glorious name:
worthy to be praised and exalted for ever.

Blessed are you, glorious in your holy temple:
worthy to be praised and exalted for ever.

Blessed are you who behold the depths:
worthy to be praised and exalted for ever.

Blessed are you on the throne of your kingdom:
worthy to be praised and exalted for ever.

Blessed are you in the heights of heaven:
worthy to be praised and exalted for ever.

From the Rector

Dear Friends,

Well... I feel like a yo-yo. I keep coming and then going again! On sick leave - back - on holidays - back - on sick leave - back - on sick leave and now back again. Once more thank you to everyone who has helped recently and at such short notice. Just so you all know I have been to the doctor and the dentist and I am still awaiting specialist appointments. What I can confirm is that I have had a chest infection and that penicillin is a miracle drug (for those of us who can take it!). It is good to be feeling better and like I have some energy. While I have been behaving like a yo-yo James Ellis has started as our new administrative assistant. Some of you have met James already and he is settling in well and proving very efficient and many things that have needed attention are finally being addressed. Alleluia! James' official office day is Thursday. My new official work days are Thursday to Sunday inclusive. I will be at our coast home Sunday evening through to Wednesday.

On these days off James and the wardens will contact me in case of any major issues or pastoral emergencies. This is a new arrangement for all of us and it will take some time for everything to settle down and a rhythm to emerge. I am very confident that our community life and outreach will be significantly enhanced. A church that is welcoming and nurturing of each individual takes a team, a group of people working together. On the day we wonder at the nature of God, blessed Trinity, three in one, we give thanks that the church at its best reflects this unity in diversity and love given and received.

Have a blessed week

Peace and love

Rebecca

KEY POINTS FROM PARISH COUNCIL...

- Rebecca has now begun her new four day working arrangement - from Thursday to Sunday. The former mid-week Wednesday Eucharist is now taking place at 10am Thursdays. Parish Council meetings will now be during the second week of every month.
- James Ellis has begun work as the parish Administrative Assistant for 14 hours a week. Thursday will be his one regular fixed day in the office. Welcome James.
- The Parish Council will organise as soon as possible a test of the hearing loop.
- The Twilight Fair will be held on Saturday 8 November 3-7pm. Helen Palethorpe has very kindly agreed again to be the Fair Coordinator.
- Reverse cycle units for heating will be installed in the Lamerton Centre next week.
- Additional security lighting will be installed for the path behind the new colourbond fence near the Lamerton Centre. This was a request from the Kindergarten who is paying for the installation.
- The Parish roll continues to be updated.
- The next meeting of Parish Council will be Thursday 10 July at 7pm.
