1 O sing joyfully to God our strength:
 shout in triumph to the God of Jacob.
 10 `I am the Lord your God, who brought you up from the land of Egypt:
 open wide your mouth, and I will fill it.
 11 `But my people would not listen to my voice:
 and Israel would have none of me.
 12 `So I left them to the stubbornness of their hearts:
 to walk according to their own designs.
 13 `If only my people would listen:
 if Israel would but walk in my ways,
 14 `I would soon put down their enemies:
 and turn my hand against their adversaries.
 15 `Those that hate the Lord would cringe before him:
 and their punishment would last for ever.
 16 `But Israel I would feed with the finest wheat:
 and satisfy you with honey from the rocks.'

From the Locum Tenens Rector
Psalm 81.1, 10-16

If only my people would listen to me! This is a fitting response to the reading from Jeremiah because it reflects on the crisis of the exile that Jeremiah saw coming and offers hopeful, encouraging words if only the people will listen to the word of God.

The psalm begins with a call to worship joyfully and noisily (1-5) and recites some of the exodus story as does Jeremiah (6-10) and for the same purpose: to remind the people that God has always acted on their behalf to bring about their liberation and their continuing freedom. God's presence in Israel deserves ongoing praise, joy and exultation.

Verse 10 is the conclusion of verses 1-9; God reminds them of his great liberation of their ancestors and the consequence of that is abundance if they would only receive it.

The complaint (11-16) is that the people of God did not listen to the voice of God who had liberated and provided for them. They do not think much of God so don't bother to listen.

So God gives them over to the stubbornness of their hearts. This is their choice; this is what they shall have (12) but God takes such an action with a heavy grief-stricken heart. God's dynamic living relationship with his people is portrayed poignantly; Gods' pain is that of a rejected lover (13). If only they would listen and receive what God is offering they could experience security and plenty (14-16).

The first part of Christian spirituality is to pay attention and learn how to pay attention. Continuous partial attention maybe the state of most of us in our daily lives but it is a dangerous spiritual condition. The refusal to hear is treated with respect and the Lord hands over the people to their own wishes; they can follow their own counsels.

But the Lord does not do this lightly or in a fit of pique. They are still his people; he loves them and he is not aloof from the ache of separation. Listening to God is crucial. The point of worship is to enable us to pay attention to God's exclusive claim on our lives. Listening to God is at the heart of what it means to be the people of God.

Question: How may we be more attentive to the voice of God? "What is God saying?" How often do we ask this questions as individuals and as a community?

PRAYERS

. We pray for our children and young families and youth. We pray we find someone to minister to them and we give thanks for the opportunities we have in this Parish. Amen.

. Bountiful God, give to this parish a faithful pastor who will faithfully speak your word and minister your sacraments; an encourager who will love and care for us all, who will equip your people for ministry and enable us to fulfil our calling. Give to those who will choose, wisdom, discernment and patience, and to us give warm and generous hearts, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

. God of mercy, we know that you remember the homeless, the destitute, the disadvantaged and those who have no-one to care for them. In our efforts to minister to their needs we thank you for the ministry of Revd. Robin Moore at Northbourne Community Centre and we pray that you will guide us to secure funding in this time of great financial stress. For Jesus' sake. Amen.

Key Points from August Parish Council Meeting

- The Diocesan Synod will be held in Goulburn from 9-11 September. St. Philips will be represented by Rev'ds Colin and Robin and by Philippa Wicks, Rosemary Knight and Vicki Luker.
- The Parish has had limited success in its application from local clubs but we are grateful for their support. We still await word from ACT Housing for funding for the Northbourne Community Centre program. Northbourne Committee will meet on 19 August to review the future of the program. Parish Council would continue to value your prayers for a sustainable future for Robin Moore's Northbourne Community Centre ministry,
- The car park resurfacing is complete. We are continuing to fix eaves, drains and some shared sewerage problems with the kindergarten.
- Any update on Parish signage. We will see new signage in the next few weeks, weather permitting.

At mid-year, the Parish's running costs budget is in a reasonable state, partly due to lower expenditure and partly because we are not paying for a full time Rector. The second half of the year will see increased expenditure on maintenance of drains, sewerage line and the car park as well as upgraded signage around the church which was planned as part of the Lamerton Centre project.

The rectory internal work is complete except for the final carpet cleaning. However, the outside work has still to be done. This includes the pergolas, some guttering/roofing issues, tree maintenance and fencing. Rectory costs will continue to be met from the Carola Parke Bequest.
