New Rector of St Philip's appointed

Revd Christina Cargill MA, MLitt, BEd

From the Bishop of Canberra and Goulburn Rt Revd Dr Mark Short

Dear friends in Christ,

I am pleased to announce that the Reverend Prebendary Christine Cargill has accepted my invitation to be the new rector of St Philip's Anglican Church, O'Connor.

Christine is currently the Vicar of St Anne's with Holy Trinity Brondesbury, an inner London Parish, where she has ministered for the past 11 years.

Christine will re-locate from London to Canberra around the end of December with a view to commencing at St Philip's around mid-January.

Ordained as priest in the Diocese of London in 2011, she holds a Master of Arts in Theology, Master of Letters in Peace Studies and Conflict Resolution, and a Bachelor of Education.

Christine brings extensive experience as a priest, educator and community sector consultant. Her particular expertise is in developing parish identity, mission and community presence. While her primary focus is nurturing congregations in the foundations of faith and practices, her passions are eucharistic worship, inclusive community and community engagement.

The Canberra region is dear to Christine. She has close family and friends nearby and is an alumna of Braidwood Central School.

Christine says, "I am very excited to be moving back to the Canberra region and look forward to working with you at St Philip's. Please pray with me as we prepare for this time of transition. It will be fabulous to meet you all in January."

Please join me in welcoming Christine to St Philip's and supporting her in this new chapter of our shared journey in Christ.

Your brother and Bishop,

+ Mark Short

Anglican Bishop of Canberra and Goulburn
